

The Edison Arts Society Gallery at the Edison Municipal Building is a joint venture between Edison Township and the Edison Arts Society.

EAS remains committed to a cultural renaissance as we enter our second decade in the wonderfully diverse community of Edison Township.

This exhibit represents the eighth opening of the gallery with over 200 feet of wall space, highly visible to members of the community who frequent the Municipal Building on many different levels.

Sept. 15, 2011 to Jan. 30, 2012

I understand the rules of exhibiting my artwork at the EAS Gallery in the Edison Municipal Building.

The work is to remain on the walls, unless sold, at which time the artwork is to be replaced with a similar quality piece.

The artwork is to hang at the gallery in the designated space until the time the exhibit concludes.

The EAS Municipal Gallery will be diligent in the security of the exhibit space, however EAS and the Municipality will not be held liable for any damage or loss of any kind. The insurance coverage will be the responsibility of the participating artist.
